CONSTITUTION OF THE EASTERN PEQUOT TRIBAL NATION

PREAMBLE

We, the Members of the Eastern Pequot Tribal Nation (the "Tribe"), descendants of the historic Pequot Tribe, in order to protect our sovereign rights, preserve our history and culture, develop our common resources, promote self sufficiency and provide for the general welfare of the Tribe for seven generations yet unborn, do hereby ordain and establish this Constitution.

ARTICLE I

TRIBAL NAME
We shall be known as the Eastern Pequot Tribal Nation. In making this declaration, we also acknowledge that we are the same Tribe referred to in Connecticut General Statutes, Chapter 824, Section 47-59a and 47-59b (1971), as the Paucatuck Eastern Pequot Tribe and the same Tribe acknowledged by the Secretary of the Interior as the historical Eastern Pequot Tribe in the Final Determination on Petitions #35 and #113, (2002).

ARTICLE II

JURISDICTION
Except as prohibited by federal law, the Eastern Pequot Tribal Nation shall have jurisdiction over: (1) all tribal members; (2) all persons and entities doing business with the Tribe and its members; (3) all persons, entities, subjects, real and personal property, and all activities within the Tribe’s territory as defined by Article III of this Constitution. Nothing in this article shall be construed to limit the ability of the Tribe to exercise any jurisdiction it possesses as a result of its inherent tribal sovereignty.

Tribal Membership of the Eastern Pequot Tribal Nation voted to adopt this Constitution at its annual meeting held on July 28 & 29, 2007.
The results of the vote were ratified on August 25, 2007.
ARTICLE III

TERRITORY
The territory of the Eastern Pequot Tribal Nation shall include, to the fullest extent allowed by applicable law, all lands, waters, property, airspace, surface and subsurface rights, and other natural resources in which the Tribe now has or may acquire an interest in and/or which owned or are subsequently acquired now or in the future by: (1) the Tribe; (2) the State of Connecticut; (3) any other State of the United States; (4) the United States of America; (5) or any other government for the benefits of the Tribe or for one or more individual members of the Tribe.

Section 1. Tribal Lands. The Tribe shall have the authority to establish land policies, land use ordinances and otherwise regulate land use within the tribal territory, in accordance with this Constitution. This shall include all new and existing structures and abandoned property.

Section 2. Tribal Residences. Tribal members desiring to live on the reservation or on common tribal lands shall make application to the Tribal Housing Authority as shall be prescribed in a Tribal Housing Ordinance as may from time to time be amended. Any member who prior to the adoption of this Constitution, owned or maintained a residence on the reservation shall be exempted.

Section 3. Hunting & Fishing. Tribal members may hunt and fish on tribal land and in tribal waters subject to the limitations as the Tribe may impose by law, ordinance or resolution.

Section 4. Natural Resources. Tribal members who are lawful residents on tribal land may take down trees for personal use. No Tribal member may clear or remove tress without prior written approval. No tribal member may remove any stone or gravel from tribal land without prior approval of the Tribe. Non-tribal members shall not remove or exploit natural resources from tribal lands without written approval and are subject to the jurisdiction of the Tribe arising from such action.
Section 5. Tribal Waters and Airspace. The Tribe shall have authority to establish laws, regulations and ordinances to govern the waterways, airspaces and natural resources located within the Territory of the Tribe.

ARTICLE IV

MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. The membership of the Eastern Pequot Tribal Nation shall consist of:

(A) Persons whose names are contained on the base rolls of the Eastern Pequot Tribal Nation as approved by the Secretary of the Interior in the Final Determination published in the Federal Register on July 1, 2002 (the “Base Roll”) and

(B) Persons who are the lineal descendants of persons whose names appear on the Base Roll and who have applied for and been accepted as members of the Tribe in the manner which shall be prescribed in the Tribal Enrollment Ordinance of the Eastern Pequot Tribal Nation as the same may from time to time, be amended.

(C) Persons who have not voluntarily enrolled in any other federally recognized Indian Tribe, band, group or any other tribal entity.

Section 2. Disenrollment. Any member of the Tribe shall be disenrolled following notice, if said member voluntarily becomes an enrolled member of any other federally recognized Indian tribe, band, group or any other tribal entity. Once disenrolled, based on proof of enrollment in another federally recognized Indian tribe, band, group or any other tribal entity, the member shall be barred permanently from reapplying for membership in the Eastern Pequot Tribal Nation.

Section 3. Relinquishment of Membership. Any member of the Tribe may relinquish his/her membership and the membership of their minor children under the age of 18 by submitting a signed written request to relinquish membership in the manner which shall be prescribed in the Tribal Enrollment Ordinance which may from time to time be amended. Any member, who has relinquished his/her membership in the Eastern Pequot Tribal Nation, may not be re-enrolled in the Tribe, provided however, that a minor whose membership in the Tribe was relinquished by his/her parents or legal guardian, may reapply for membership in the Tribe and be re-enrolled at any point following his/her eighteenth (18) birthday.

Section 4. Appeal.
(A) Any person whose application for enrollment in the Tribe, is denied, shall have a right to receive an explanation of that decision and a right to appeal that decision in the manner which shall be prescribed in the Tribal Enrollment Ordinance which may from time to time be amended.
(B) Any person, who is disenrolled from the tribe, shall have a right to receive an explanation of the decision and a right to appeal that decision in a manner which shall be prescribed in the Tribal Enrollment Ordinance which may from time to time be amended.

Section 5. Enrollment Ordinance. The Tribe shall enact a Tribal Enrollment Ordinance which shall be consistent with the provisions of this Constitution. Copies of the ordinance shall be made available to all tribal members and applicants for enrollment.

ARTICLE V

RIGHTS OF TRIBAL MEMBERS
The Eastern Pequot Tribal Nation and its instrumentalities, shall not, when exercising powers of self government:

(A) Make or enforce any law prohibiting the free exercise of religion; abridge freedom of speech, freedom of the press, or the right of tribal members to peacefully assemble and to petition for redress of grievances.

(B) Violate the right of a tribal member to be secure in their persons, houses, papers and effects against unreasonable search and seizures, nor issue warrants, except upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched and the person or thing seized.

Tribal Membership of the Eastern Pequot Tribal Nation voted to adopt this Constitution at its annual meeting held on July 28 & 29, 2007. The results of the vote were ratified on August 25, 2007.
(C) Take any private property from a tribal member for public use without due process and just compensation.

(D) Deny any tribal member the equal protection of its law or deprive any member of liberty or property without due process of law.

(E) Abridge any right guaranteed to a tribal member by the United States Constitution.

(F) Deprive any tribal member of any right guaranteed by the Indian Civil Rights Act.

ARTICLE VI

CODE OF CONDUCT AND ETHICS

Section 1. Code of Conduct – Members. The Tribe shall adopt and enforce a Code of Conduct applicable to all tribal members, which includes a disciplinary process with full rights of due process, for those tribal members whose conduct is deemed detrimental to the Tribe, as shall be prescribed in a Tribal Code of Conduct Ordinance, which may from time to time be amended.

Section 2. Code of Ethics – Tribal Council. The Tribe shall adopt and enforce a Code of Ethics applicable to Tribal Councilors. The Code of Ethics shall include disciplinary procedures with full rights of due process and shall include provisions for the sanctioning of Tribal Councilors for gross neglect of duty, improper conduct or other malfeasance, as shall be prescribed in a Tribal Council Code of Ethics ordinance which may from time to time be amended.
